Gasoline stations to close weekends

Specific energy curtailment rules outlined by President Richard M. Nixon in a national address last night included:

1. Reduction of the gasoline supply by 15 per cent, utilizing that petroleum to provide more heating oil.
2. Closing of all gasoline filling stations from 9 p.m. each Saturday to midnight each Sunday night, beginning Dec. 1.
3. A speed limit of 50 miles an hour on passenger autos and 55 on buses and trucks.

4. Reduction of airline flights and increases in passenger loads to reduce airplane jet fuel use by an additional 15 per cent, for a total cut of 25 per cent.
5. Limitation of outdoor lighting to signs identifying places of business. Curtailment of ornamental Christmas lights, including such lights within homes.

6. Allocation of heating oil to reduce usage by an average of 10 per cent at industries, 15 per cent at homes and 25 per cent at commercial firms.

7. Lowering of all thermostats by six degrees to achieve a national daytime average of 68 degrees.

President Nixon praised Congress, businesses and the public for their cooperation since his Nov. 7 message on the fuel crisis, and called for continued cooperation to achieve "Project Independence" — U. S. energy self-sufficiency by 1980.

He voiced hope that all will have adequate warmth in their homes throughout the winter and that there will be no serious disruptions in the normal conduct of business.

All were asked to "sacrifice a little so that no one must endure real hardship."

Site for Chouteau building

Chouteau Township has completed acquisition of land on which to build a new township building and garage, Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks announced today.

Sparks said the transaction was completed last week when the title to a 6.41-acre site north of Interstate 270 on the access road behind the Midwest Motel was turned over to township officials by the owners Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Tingle.

Sparks said that he, Town Clerk Patricia Polley and Township Attorney D. M. Buckley met with Mr. and Mrs. Tingle and Attorney Phil Thies in Thies' office and completed the transfer of records. Mrs. Polley gave the Tingles a check for $15,814 in full payment of the land purchase, Sparks said.

Sparks said all documents in the transaction have been filed with the recorder's office at Edwardsville.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony will be planned soon to permit interested persons to view the property and learn from town board members what is planned for development on the tract.

Sparks said town officials will meet soon with representatives of Filipp Associates of Alton, an architectural firm, to initiate work on construction plans.

The tract acquired by the township was the third proposed for purchase. The other proposed sites were abandoned because of zoning problems.

Levee Board control shifting to this area

The Quad-Cities seem destined to gain numerical control of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District Board effective with the 1976 election, Frank A. Kirk has confirmed in a letter to Namekoi Township Supervisor Louis E. Whitsell.

Kirk is director of the Illinois State Department of Local Government Affairs.

Three of the five Levee Board positions currently are held by the St. Clair County area, consisting primarily of East St. Louis. Two posts are held by the Madison County area of the district, composed of the Quad-Cities.

The county area containing the largest assessed valuation is granted three of the five board posts under existing Illinois law.

Quad-Cityans pay the most levee taxes, by a large margin, due to a higher percentage of collection of the tax bills extended.

This community also has been gaining in assessment, compared to East St. Louis, and has now surpassed the southern section of the levee district. If this still is true for the 1974 and 1975 tax years (1975-76 collection), control of the district will shift to the Quad-Cities for the first time.

Text of Kirk's letter to Whitsell follows:

"I regret the delay in responding to your letter concerning the election of trustees for the East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

"Based on preliminary information submitted to us by the county clerks of the respective counties, it appears that the 1972 equalized assessed valuation for that portion of the district located in Madison County is slightly higher than for that portion of the district located in St. Clair County.

"The difference appears to be less than $3,000,000, with a total district equalized assessment of approximately $486,000,000.

"It must be noted that the statutory provision relating to the election of district trustees does not specify the year for which the equalized assessed valuation is to be determined for the purpose of ascertaining which of the two counties is entitled to two trustees.

"I believe it is reasonable to conclude that the most current valuation available at the time of the election should be used.

"The next primary and general election for trustees will be held in 1976. The latest available information at that time will probably be the equalized assessed valuation for 1975.

"Therefore, a determination at this time as to which county will be entitled to elect three trustees and which county will be entitled to elect two trustees is premature."

Cancel Walker visit

The visit here of Governor Daniel Walker scheduled for 7 p.m. Tuesday at Granite City High School-North cafeteria has been postponed for the second time due to illness.

According to a Walker aide, the state's chief executive has been ordered by his doctor to reschedule all traveling, as a bronchial condition has reappeared.

Negotiations on a Chicago Regional Transit plan has necessitated a heavy work load on the Governor which caused a re-occurrence of the condition that hospitalized him a month ago.

The "accountability" session will be rescheduled here in about two weeks, according to the governor's office.

Man hurt seriously in fall during drug raid

A 22-year-old Granite City woman was arrested and a Granite City man was injured seriously during a search for drugs by Madison County deputies and Granite City police at a residence here Thanksgiving morning.

Sgt. Gary Burns of the narcotics division of the Madison County Sheriff's Department said charges of possession of hypodermic needles, cannabis and a controlled substance were filed against Patricia Brule, 22, of 2124 Delmar Ave. She was taken to the Madison County Jail.

The man, identified by authorities as Thomas Inman, 22, also next door to Brule, allegedly was injured when he jumped from a second-story window of the building after officers entered the premises.

Sgt. Burns said Inman landed on a fence and suffered severe internal injuries. He underwent surgery at St. Elizabeth Hospital and was admitted to the intensive care unit.

Burns said deputies, accompanied by Granite City police, served a search warrant to arrest Donald Chatham, 23, Anthony Fenoglio, 22, Glen Chatham, 21, and Michael Wood, 20; all gave addresses in the block in which they were arrested.

Store robbed of $243 cash

An armed robber, who appeared to be intoxicated, stole $243 from Goskie's Market, 2700 Edwards St., Albert Goskie, owner, reported at 6 p.m. Sunday.

Goskie said the man entered, asked for a package of cigarettes and then pointed a revolver at the store owner's head and said, "Give me all your money."

The owner said he emptied all of his pockets and the money from the cash register onto the counter. The robber then said, "Give me the money down there from your money orders."

Goskie complied, after which the man told Thelma Goskie, who also was working in the store, "Unload your pockets too."

The man backed from the store saying, "I don't want to hurt you. I have kids to feed."

Goskie described the gunman as about 35 to 38 years of age, about 5 foot, 7 inches tall, having black shaggy hair and a mustache. He wore a blue jacket and sun glasses, officers were told.

Belleville College okays Quad-Cities

The Belleville Area College board voted unanimously Wednesday night to accept the Granite City, Madison and Venice public school districts as part of BAC territory. The three school systems earlier adopted preferential resolutions selecting BAC.

President H. J. Huberaecker said notification was forwarded the same evening to the Illinois Community College Board, which is to formalize on Dec. 14 a statewide map announced tentatively Nov. 16.

The map places the Quad-Cities within BAC boundaries, effective next June 30.

Territory assigned to Belleville Area College is extensive but the enrollment is not expected to change drastically because most of the newly annexed areas already were sending students to BAC.

Other areas joining BAC include Collinsville, Triad, Highland, Chester, Steelville, Cottleville, Okawville, Sparta, Red Bud, Waterloo and Valmeyer.

New department store will open

A new K-Mart Department Store, 3655 Namekoi Road, is a beehive of activity in preparation for its grand opening at 9 a.m. Thursday.

Public officials will tour the 96,000 square-foot store at 8 a.m., and a ribbon-cutting ceremony is set for 8:30 a.m. Thursday.

A staff of 175 has been hired, mostly from this area. Manager L. D. Williams told the Press-Record originally from St. Joseph, Mo., he has been transferred here from the Palatine, Ill. store. Assistant managers are Bill Stewart, Jim Kuddes, Bill Mallory, Allen Reese and Travis Prater. Granite City is the 67th K-mart, and eight such stores are opening the same day.

The newly built one-level store includes furniture and appliances; clothing for the entire family; a home improvement center including lumber and hardware; camera and jewelry sections; automotive supplies; sporting goods, and a food grill.

"We offer everything here but groceries," the manager commented. The store has an extensive parking lot in front of the building and is hopeful that additional traffic controls can be provided on Namekoi Road if they prove to be needed.

Store hours will be 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sundays.

Barges snap moorings, two wrecked on dam

Salvage operations are under way today to unload large quantities of grain from two barges impaled on the Mississippi River low water dam, close to the Illinois shore and just south of the old Chain of Rocks Bridge.

The wrecked vessels were among about 16 barges which ore loose at 4:10 a.m. Sunday from a mooring site at the Sioux City-New Orleans Barge Lines docks on Mobil Island, located at the confluence of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers, a short distance from the north entrance to the Chain of Rocks Canal.

One barge sank on a sandbar and another barge was lodged on another sandbar about 300 feet downstream. The remaining 11 cleared the low water dam and apparently are "hung up" at different points down river, authorities said.

The barge lines maintains a floating service at Mobil Island where tows are made up for transportation loads to destinations both north and south.

The company is conducting its own salvage operation by unloading the grain by crane from the impaled barges to another barge.

Lee still in coma

Justices okay party switch

The U.S. Supreme Court last week overturned an Illinois law that required voters changing party affiliations to switch 23 months before a primary election. "It substantially restricts a voter's freedom," Justice Potter Stewart said for the 7-2 majority. Dissenters were William H. Rehnquist and Harry A. Blackmun. The state argued that the law was needed to prevent "raiding," in which members of one party vote in the primary of another party to distort the outcome. Stewart acknowledged the court has approved an 11-month waiting period in New York, but said that state does not lock voters into one party as did the Illinois law.

News notes

The Air Force has rejected Scott Air Force Base as a possible base for heavy bombers. Such bombers may be moved from coastal sites to become less vulnerable to missiles from Soviet submarines. A trade of missions between a coastal base and the Military Airlift Command at Scott would cost $25 million to $40 million, a study showed.

James Augustine of Livingston said Friday he will not run for county clerk, an office sought by his cousin, Miss Evelyn Bowles of Edwardsville. Others with petitions for the office include Granite City Assessor Van Dee Cruse, State Rep. Leland Kennedy of Alton and Ronald Goodman of Godfrey.

Due to the shortage of paper, new St. Louis telephone books will be distributed in February rather than December.

Pete Perica, a former Madison County Board member opposing incumbent board member Mrs. Frances Roberts, said last week he was fired as a part-time, 32-hour county sanitation inspector because of his candidacy. Environmental Control Committee Chairman Carl Buehler said there was no firing but that Perica was required to take a three-month leave of absence during the campaign.

May acquire airport land

William Koppke, head of the Airport Service Section, Kansas City regional office, Federal Aviation Administration, said Friday a "land bank" for a new Columbia-Waterloo, Ill., airport is "very much a possibility."

He said the FAA is considering a "compromise" in which $5,000,000 would be provided as half the cost of buying the proposed airport site.

The FAA also would help finance preparation of a master plan to guide Lambert Field development and expansion until that airport becomes too overcrowded.

1,001,000 planning grant is under study. "Passenger use of Lambert is not growing as rapidly as projected, partly because of airline strikes and elimination of some flights, it was noted.

Last pre-playoff Illinois state grid season comes to an end

By KEN THOMPSON
Press-Record Staff Writer

The traditional Turkey Day clash between the East St. Louis Flyers and the Maroons of Belleville-West ended as it began back in 1916, with East St. Louis winning. The Flyers posted their 45th victory Thursday over the Maroons by a score of 22-16.

Since both Southwestern Conference powerhouses entered the game with identical 5-0-1 conference records, the annual event also decided the 1973 conference championship.

The final clash between the two ended an era of tradition to make way for a new era of progress. It begins next year when the Illinois High School Association initiates a state championship football playoff.

It is scheduled to start at the conclusion of the ninth week of the 1974 season and will be completed no later than the fourth Saturday in November.

Playoffs will be conducted in five classes, IA to 5A, producing five separate champions.

Five 16-team brackets, involving a total of 80 teams, will be structured for the playoff series, based on the average enrollment of schools in the conference.

Each of the five classes will consist of teams in 13 statewide conferences, with each conference champion earning a berth in the playoffs.

In addition, at-large teams will be selected in each class from among independent schools and/or conference runners-up.

The Southwestern Conference, which includes GCHS South, with an average per-school enrollment of 2,821, will be in Class 5A along with conferences of similar enrollment size.

These include Illini Eight (2,048); Big Nine (2,623); Mid-Suburban (2,190); Upstate Eight (2,614); Central Suburban-North (2,647); Central Suburban-South (2,721); Des Plaines Valley (2,734); SICAWest Central (2,841); Western Big Six (3,019); West Suburban (3,109); SICANorth Central (3,084); and Suburban League (4,115).

Since there are no schools on the independent list with an enrollment large enough to qualify for Class 5A, three at-large teams will be selected from the participating conferences to round out the tourney.

GCHS-North is in Class 4A of independents along with Belleville Althoff and Macomb. Madison High joins 12 other schools to comprise the Class 3A independent list; this includes Alton Marquette, which had a near-perfect record this year, 9-0-1.

At-large teams will be selected by the IHSA on recommendations from its football advisory committee.

To receive strong consideration, independents must meet minimum (.80 per cent) win-loss requirements.

If there were to be playoffs in the event of a tie, it would be the champion of the huge (enrollment wise) Suburban League would face the challenge of 10 suburban and two downstate conference champions in the Class 5A title race.

Pittsfield, an independent whose state-record winning streak was snapped at 64 in the second game of this year, could be selected as an at-large team in Class 3A. Tiny Neporaet, with an enrollment of 88, could be playing for the Class 1A title, representing a conference with an average enrollment of 138.

Some schools listed as independents this year may be members of established conferences in 1974, while others are expected to band together to form new conferences or add football to an existing conference athletic structure.

Don Deterding, athletic coordinator at GCHS North, told the Press-Record, "We are too small in enrollment for the Southwestern Conference and too large for the Mississippi Valley Conference."

"We've seriously considered forming a new conference among the independents in this area, but at the same time we are going to talk to several other conferences about acceptance."

Maxon High School Coach Al Vander Haar thinks, "They should realign all the conferences. Each conference should consist only of schools with similar enrollment size."

"Some schools have already sent letters to other independents wanting to form their own conference to insure a team in the state playoffs."

Murphy's head coach at Evanston High, says, "We've been for the playoffs all along because I see them as a positive thing. Kids need motivation to excel and to continue to compete every year. There's no question the playoffs will add interest to high school football."

Dennis Heiman, head coach at Pittsfield, which had its 64-victory string snapped by arch-rival Winchester, remarked, "One thing that bothers me is that we're an independent school. Kids need motivation to excel and to continue to compete every year. There's no question the playoffs will add interest to high school football."

"We're searching for a conference to join, but that presents problems. We're too small for the conference in one area, and too small for leagues elsewhere."

Playoff games, except for the final, will be assigned to the school of one of the competing teams.

Pairings for preliminary games will be on a geographic basis to minimize travel. But in no case will two teams from a conference be paired together in the first round. In the event one qualifies as an at-large entry, the finals will be played on the astro-turf at Belleville University's Hancock Stadium at Normal.

The playoffs have raised the question—what happens in the event of a tie game?

The IHSA has developed a system of breaking ties for all playoff games in order to insure winners.

With the score tied at the end of regulation time, a coin toss will be held, with the winner given its choice of playing on offense or defense first.

The offensive team will have possession of the ball, first down and goal to go on the opponent's 10-yard-line, with four downs in which to score.

After one team scores, loses possession, or completes its four downs, the opposing team will be given the same opportunity to score from the 10-yard-line.

The same end of the field is to be used for both sets of downs. The team scoring the most points in the overtime is declared the winner.

Should the score remain tied at the end of one overtime, succeeding identical overtime periods will be played until a winner is determined.

Should a defensive team intercept a pass and return it to score, or gain points in any other manner, the game will be ended upon completion of the extra point attempt.

Some feel that the "no tie system" should be picked up by conferences to insure a conference champion, instead of a tie for first place, as would have been the case with East St. Louis and Belleville-West had there been no Thanksgiving Day confrontation—or a tie game—this year.

Maxon's Coach Jim Morel, whose team had the distinction of being involved in the first known overtime game in Illinois, said, "It could do a lot more for the game. There will be more fan participation, like other sports, because you know there would be an eventual winner and loser."

Whatever the more than 85 statewide conferences and the independent teams decide—whether or not to adopt the tie-breaking rule—the possibility is there that the Quad-City area could produce not just one, but three state football champions in 1974. However, the odds are great against more than one champion eleven in most geographic areas.

Two-month bonus on 1973 hunting, fishing licenses

Hunters, trappers and fishermen who bought a 1973 license to pursue their sports got more of a bargain than they knew.

The licenses, which normally would expire on Jan. 31, have been extended to run for an extra two months, not expiring until March 31, 1974.

The change was made in an amendment to the state fish and game code, passed by the legislature at the last session and newly signed into law by Gov. Daniel Walker.

In the future, hunting, fishing and trapping licenses will again be good only for 12 months, running from April 1 through March 31. But this time, during the changeover, holders of '73 licenses get a bonus.

John Warren, in the Information and Education Section of the State Conservation Department, said the change was one which had been supported by the department, since it makes the hunting and fishing licenses conform more to the actual seasons in which they are used.

The 1974 hunting season will get under way with the opening of the turkey season in April, and hunters planning to go out for wild turkeys will have to have a 1974 license.

Not affected by the change are fish dealers' licenses, and fish permits which are required for large range operations—including taxidermists, aquarium operators, breeders and the like. All operate on a year-round basis rather than the seasonal activities of the sport fisherman.

Since accounting procedures had previously been geared to a Jan. 31 expiration date, and since the activities covered by these permits go on all year-round, Warren said, it was felt that nothing would be gained—and extra expense in changing accounting procedures would be incurred—by changing these dates.

CODE CHANGED BUT NOT BY GOVERNOR

The director of the Illinois Personnel Department acted without Gov. Dan Walker's knowledge in removing 5,000 state employees from civil service protection, he said last week.

Nolan B. Jones said he removed 30 unskilled job categories from the personnel code but not for patronage purposes. He said his goal was to give minorities a greater chance for state employment.

Democrats have good chance to control Assembly in '74 voting

By KEN WATSON

Copley News Service Springfield — To Illinois Republicans, it's like waking up and finding the nightmare still there. The decision by Rockford Cong. John B. Anderson not to run against Democratic U. S. Sen. Adlai Stevenson in 1974 has confirmed the worst fears of the state's GOP leadership.

The party is going into an exceedingly tough campaign without a name candidate to top the ticket.

Anderson was the second of the one-time "big three" to take himself out of consideration. Atty. Gen. William J. Scott did so earlier.

Former Evanston Congressman and currently U. S. Ambassador to NATO Donald Rumsfeld remains a remote possibility, but at the Statehouse no one is now taking a Rumsfeld candidacy seriously.

The Republican party now finds itself in about the worst fix since the 1930s. The prevailing view is frequently, and virtually openly, expressed that the GOP might as well forget about 1974 and start working on 1976—when the prospects are considered somewhat bright for beating Democratic Gov. Daniel Walker.

Many a Capitol Republican is resigned to losing control of the Illinois House and Senate to the Democrats next year.

Privately, some legislators, excluding their own candidacies from the debate, say this wouldn't be too hard a development.

With Walker having control of the legislature during the second two years of his term, he could no longer blame Republicans for failure to make any significant accomplishments.

This, it is said, would set up the game for Bill Scott, whom many long-range GOP optimists think can wait into the governor's office like Secretariat won racing's "triple crown."

Meanwhile, a fight must be made next year, no matter how high the odds. There are occasionally miracles in politics, but they don't "just happen."

Barring a last-minute draft of some Republican of major prominence, the choice for senator now focuses mainly on John Kirby, of Williamsville, who has statewide experience and exposure from a previous campaign for state auditor, and State Rep. John C. Hirschfeld of Champaign.

Kirby would appear to have an edge for the nomination at the state level. He has done some thorough, advance, political spadework and has some impressive support from key county chairmen and other political figures.

Kirby is relatively young, good-looking, highly intelligent and can be counted on to make a vigorous campaign.

One drawback is that he is from Sangamon county and Harry Page, also of Sangamon, is already in the race for state treasurer.

Republicans have been down before and came back. But they have rarely faced a steeper hill.

Windows broken by air rifles

Tony Havranek, 1652 Sixth St., Madison, reported to police last week that vandals broke a picture window in his house with a shot fired from an air rifle.

Police reported that vandals also broke two car windows, a stained glass window on the Nativity of the Virgin Mary Eastern Orthodox Church, a First National Bank window and the window at the residence of Eugene Noud, 710 McCambridge Ave.

CIGARETTES RECOVERED

Madison County Sheriff's deputies last week recovered about 70 cases of cigarettes from a storage shed being used by the East Side Levee District one mile north of Interstate 70 on Route 111. An employee of the levee district made the discovery. It has not been determined where they were stolen, authorities said.

Sgt. Conner in Army Exercises

Army Sergeant Terry H. Conner, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellisworth Conner, 2228 Iowa St., participated with other American and Allied troops in Exercise Reforger V in Germany.

The military airlift command flew approximately 11,000 U.S.-based soldiers and more than 1,000 tons of equipment to three different airfields in Germany in preparation for the event.

Immediately after arriving overseas, the redeployed units drew combat gear and vehicles from prepositioned storage sites in Germany and moved to the exercise area to begin the seven-day field maneuver.

Plotted against the airlifted forces were Europe-based elements of NATO forces of the U.S., Germany and Canada.

The exercise, conducted by the joint chiefs of staff and NATO, focused on the procedures and techniques for receiving, equipping, assembling and employing units after they arrive, rather than on rapid deployment of troops from the U.S.

Sgt. Conner is regularly assigned as a squad leader with Company B, 1st Battalion of the 3rd Infantry Division's 30th Infantry at Schweinfurt, Germany.

2 indicted

A grand jury at Edwardsville has returned indictments against two men charged with crimes in the Quad-City area. James Harvey of East St. Louis was indicted on two counts of forgery for allegedly using unauthorized checks Oct. 13 at the Do-It-Yourself Home Center on Route 111. The checks were for $982 and $889, according to reports.

Harvey was released on a $5,000 recognizance bond and the posting of $500 cash.

Also named in a true bill was David Lee Presswood of Granite City, charged with two counts of taking indecent liberties with a minor Aug. 8. Bond was set at $15,000.

Trucks among school purchases

The Granite City Board of Education has purchased a panel truck for $2,831 from B. E. Hohl, Inc., of Granite City, and a cargo step-down truck from Matthews Chevrolet Co., of Granite City for $3,828. Both were awarded after bids from three companies were opened.

The board also authorized acceptance of a bid from Do-It-Yourself Center for the purchase and installation of roof trusses at a house being constructed on Clark Street by Granite City High School South building trades students.

The $991 contract includes 37 wooden trusses and two hours of crane time to install the trusses. The Do-It-Yourself bid was the lowest of several submitted.

A $753 contract was awarded to Van Sickle Radio Electronics for 41 rolls of silver tape at $1,838 per reel.

Contracts totaling $445 were awarded to four companies for tools and materials. The contracts were $120 to Brodhead Garrett, $160 to Harry's Paint Store, $83 to Rubelmann Luan, and $88 to George Rubelmann.

Two special purchases were approved by the board. Wright Line of Clayton, Mo., is to provide a cabinet for the Data Processing Center for $530 and Trerice-Thermometer Co., St. Louis, was selected to provide a trap temperature tester for $286. Due to the specialized nature of the two pieces of equipment, the contracts were awarded without bidding.

The board approved the purchase of all school supplies for the gifted program from Sargent Welch Scientific Co., Skokie, this year. The small price of each piece of equipment would make it unfeasible to seek bids on each, it was explained.

Bills ordered paid included $51,371 from the educational fund, $23,903 from the building fund, $62,441 in cafeteria disbursements, $16,874 from the transportation fund, $46,752 from the new construction fund number two, $725 from the joint agreement fund, $632 in federal funds, $440 from the educational travel fund and $137 from the joint agreement travel fund.

Higher realtor Extensive woodland requirements in Madison County

By WARREN W. BUNDY

Madison County

There are 26,199 acres of woodland in Madison County according to the 1969 census of agriculture. This year, $2,125 tree seedlings were sold in Madison County from two nurseries of the Illinois Division of Forestry.

Woodland crops respond to good management practices the same as other farm crops. Many people prefer wooded sites on which to build new houses.

Forestry and tree planting topics will be discussed by John Churan, district forester of the Illinois Division of Forestry, at a meeting Wednesday, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m. at the Farm Bureau building in Edwardsville. Everyone interested is invited to this informational meeting.

Churan will provide information on the use of state nursery tree seedlings, planting, preparations, methods and technique, legal restrictions, species availability and suitability, spacing, care and handling of stock and ordering information.

Based on questions from the audience, he will provide specific information on general hardwood forestry, windbreaks, Christmas trees, walnut, and any related forestry topics.

Dale Sherrard of SCS will discuss soils characteristics as related to forestry, and Lee Rogers of ASCS will discuss REAP status as related to tree planting. Program coordinator is Warren Bundy.

Price lists and application blanks for state seedling trees and conservation shrubs are available now at the county offices of Extension, ASCS, and SCS.

The Illinois Division of Forestry makes these plants available for reforestation and conservation purposes, but their use as shade, landscaping, or ornamental is prohibited. Seedling trees range from $9 to $13 per 500 plants, and wildlife packets cost $7 to $14 each.

Trees ordered now will be delivered at the proper planting time next spring.

Copies of the 1974 farmers' income tax guide are available free at the Extension office in Edwardsville. The guide is for use in preparing 1973 tax returns.

The 64-page guide published by the Internal Revenue Service explains how to prepare and file income tax returns. It also has illustrated examples which apply to farming situations.

It lists what income must be reported, what farm expenses may be deducted, and how to claim depreciation.

Forage crop production and dairy management techniques are program topics of a meeting planned by the Madison County Agriculture Extension Council for Tuesday, Dec. 4, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Farm Bureau auditorium, Edwardsville.

University of Illinois Forage Crop Specialist Don Graffis will discuss recommended forage crop varieties, fertility, disease and insect control, and harvesting. Wilbur Smith, Washington County extension adviser, will discuss hay marketing and harvesting equipment.

The afternoon program will emphasize dairy record keeping and production records by a panel of three dairymen and by Ralph Johnson, U. of I. Extension Dairyman.

Dairymen are invited to a University of Illinois Area Dairy Seminar Tuesday, Dec. 11, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Madison County Legion Hall in Breese.

A team of U. of I. specialists will offer the latest information on feeding and management practices to help dairies produce more profitably.

Seminar topics include tips for producing high-quality forage, status of animal waste regulations, dairy parasite control, feeding for profit, and the value of records and other management tools to help maintain profits.

The program includes DHIA of Illinois area business meetings that begin at 12:45 p.m.

Rites held Friday

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at a Collinsville funeral home for Thomas A. Fitch, 50, of Maryville, a nea-utter for Schermer's Market, Madison. Mr. Fitch died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Highland.

THREE CAR CRASH

Two persons were injured in a three vehicle accident at Ball and Moro avenues last week. Cars damaged were those of Ronnie Miller, 1644 Moro Ave., John Stanton, 15, of 2120 Amos Ave., and Geraldine Rodgers, Rural Route One, Box 708. Stanton and Bryan Rodgers, 7, a passenger in the Rodgers' auto, received minor injuries.

TV STOLEN

Donald Nesbitt, 1611 Second St., Madison, reported to police last week that thieves broke into his home and took a portable television, clock radio, a vaporizer and a camera.

Recycling of steel begins

Granite City Steel last week received its first load of scrap steel from St. Louis under a recycling plan involving that city and Union Electric Co. The local mill expects to get 15 to 20 tons of ferrous trash daily.

Vice President Donald F. Cairns described it as the first U. S. total solid waste resource recovery system, showing that "refuse can be both recycled and converted into energy."

Scrap steel has been recycled for years at GC Steel basic oxygen furnaces. This is the first time it has been remelted in blast furnaces, where pig iron is processed for production of steel.

Dr. Cairns said the recycling "preserves consumers' freedom of choice in package goods containers, and makes a positive contribution to other energy delivery and environmental improvement efforts."

"If it proves technologically feasible, it could be expanded to the entire metropolitan region."

Bar praises withdrawal of election

Legislators were praised during the weekend by the president of the Illinois State Bar Association, William P. Sutter, Chicago, for their withdrawal of a call for a referendum.

The ballot proposal, if affirmed by the public, would have made the retention of judges subject to election on a political ballot every time they run.

The referendum was officially withdrawn by a vote of the Illinois House of Representatives Nov. 13 following a similar decision several days before by the majority of members of the Senate.

Sutter emphasized that "the judicial system in Illinois had been saved from the brink of politics, which every judge in the state would have worn if voters had approved such a referendum next year."

"Justice as we know it today would not have existed or improved, and would have become a political football," he added.

"I wish to call special attention to the dedicated efforts of State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon, State Senators Edward McBroome (R-Kankakee), Dawn Clark Natchez (D-Chicago) and Stanley B. Weaver (R-Urbana), State Representatives George H. Ryan Sr. (R-Kankakee) and Brian B. Duff (R-Wilmington), as well as former Governor Richard B. Ogilvie."

"Their outspoken opposition helped kill the legislation to restore politics in the retention of judges."

"I hope that as the result of this second study of the chaotic effects such a referendum would have on the judicial system, there will never again be another effort to have such an issue placed before the residents of Illinois."

Under the present system, judges are elected under the party label only the first time they seek office, and then are subject to retention by the public on a non-partisan basis, on the merits of how they have conducted themselves while holding their judgeships.

ABOUT THIS QUESTION: "A deer, chased by dogs, jumped thru our picture window. It went wild in the house, denting walls and furnishings and bleeding as it ran. It eventually jumped out again. Our insurance does not cover damage caused by animals. Would an 'all risk' Homeowner Policy cover such a loss?"

Electrical connections to the low-level dam between Horseshoe Lake and the Cahokia Creek canal hopefully will be completed within the next two weeks, William "Mike" Eberhardt, Venice, a member of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, reported today.

Eberhardt said the dam gates are being raised or lowered manually at the present time. While electrical leads have been laid, a metal protective case still must be built to protect the lines from vandalism. FBI may enter investigation

The Federal Bureau of Investigation likely will be called into an investigation to determine whether cigarettes worth more than $10,000 on the black market were stolen and by whom, it was disclosed this morning.

The cigarettes were found in a locked East Side Levee and Sanitary District shed by the gates just east of Route 111 and north of Interstate 70 where Horseshoe Lake empties into Cahokia Canal.

A total of 74 full cases, each containing 60 cartons, and 25 empty cases were found inside the shed by a levee district employee Tuesday. If all of the cases were full, the cigarettes would be valued at about $30,000.

GM AUTO CLOSING

General Motors Corp. will close its passenger car assembly lines in St. Louis in the week of Dec. 17-21 because of slow sales of standard-size autos, attributed to concern over the gasoline shortage. It will affect 3,500 workers. Another 3,200 will continue production of trucks and Corvettes. The plant also will close as usual Dec. 24-26 due to Christmas. The development is being studied by the A. O. Smith Corp., whose plant here produces auto frames for General Motors cars.

Tree of Lights begins

By WALTER F. STRANGE Press-Record Staff Writer

Rain may have dampened this area Saturday morning, but it did not dampen the spirit of local Salvation Army volunteers who gathered at the Citadel to launch the annual "Tree of Lights" campaign.

The goal this year for holiday cheer to needy families is $15,500. Ralph Astorian, drive chairman, told the workers he hopes at least $15,000 can be raised, "as the need is certainly there."

Major Leon E. Turner of St. Louis, public relations director for the Salvation Army, related the history of the "Tree of Lights." A group of St. Louis volunteer workers raising money for the needy at Christmas started it 27 years ago and it has spread throughout the world.

Every donation of a specified amount, a Christmas bulb is lighted on the tree in each community.

Astorian noted that collections began at nine clock locations Friday and will continue until Christmas, with local groups volunteering their time to man the kettles. The James Stuart DeMolay Chapter was the first group to serve this fall.

Paul Ulrich, Washington Theater manager, announced a children's matinee Dec. 15. Admission will be canned goods or 50 cents, with all proceeds going to the drive.

The local Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant is giving a dollar off the price to each bucket of chicken to those who bring in canned goods for the Tree of Lights.

Claude Miller, vice-president, Tri-City Grocery Co., was chosen to turn on the first light. Astorian praised the grocery store for its help to the Salvation Army.

Concordia Lutheran Explorer Post 61 arranged to present dances at Civic Park, site of the Tree of Lights.

A light can be turned on by sending a $25 check to the Salvation Army, P. O. Box 308, or taking it to the headquarters at 19th Street and Grand Avenue.

Applications for food baskets are being accepted this week through Friday, Nov. 30, between 9 a.m. and noon and between 1 and 4:30 p.m.

2 abducted, 1 released here

Louis A. Gibbs, 21, of Fairmont City, told Granite City police about 3 a.m. Saturday that two men had been beaten and robbed after driving her and a woman around in a car several hours. He said they still were holding the woman.

Gibbs said he and Miss Sharon Smith were forced into a car about 12:50 a.m. Saturday as they left the Surry Club in Fairmont City.

They drove to the Alton area, then into Granite City where Gibbs said the men struck him in the stomach, chest and back and stole $20 from him. They then pushed him out of the car.

He walked to the local police station.

Miss Smith was held hostage until 8:30 a.m. and was released unharmed about 20 miles from Fairmont City. She had to walk back, she said. St. Clair County authorities are investigating the incident.

Cougar soccer team advances

Brusing first halves for both St. Louis University and SIUE Saturday in semi-final action in the Midwest Regional NCAA Division (major schools) soccer tournament failed to stop the two national powerhouses from advancing to the finals Sunday, Dec. 9, against each at Cougar Field.

The Bills of Coach Harry Keough, after a scoreless first half, exploded for six quick goals to demolish Bowling Green State University of Ohio, 6-0, while Coach Bob Guelker's host kickers, also unable to score in the first half, overwhelmed a hard-fighting Northern Illinois U. team, 3-0.

It was the Bills' 10th victory to go with one loss (1-0 to Green Bay, Wis.) and three ties. The Cougars are now 11-1-1, the sole defeat being a 1-0 thriller to St. Louis U. before 20,122 fans at Busch Stadium. Bowling Green dropped to 9-2-0 and Northern U.'s Huskies ended up 7-2-2, both losses being to SIUE.

Trojans win 2

Larry Graham, head basketball coach at Madison High, told the Press-Record last week, "We won't be running or pressing a lot, but I think we'll make a good showing in the tournament."

The trojans made an impressive showing in the two-day Collinsville meet, defeating Thornton-North 77-74 Friday night and Quincy 72-61 Saturday afternoon before bowing 69-58 to Collinsville in the final round.

"Thornton almost beat us," said Graham. "Our kids took quite a few unnecessary shots."

Thornton, trailing 25-12, 41-34 and 62-50 at the quarters, closed to within a point of Madison in the final period, but Jon Henke made two key steals to keep the Southern Conference team from pulling ahead.

Rudolph Bradley and Ron Clasper each scored 20 points. Carl Campbell had 19, Chris Stanton 10 and Henke, eight. Clasper had 10 assists and Henke had six.

Early Saturday afternoon, the Trojans met another traditional powerhouse, Quincy, in the second round again.

Madison maintained a narrow four-point lead throughout the first three quarters and, with only minutes remaining, Quincy closed the gap to 56-54.

Consecutive baskets by Rudolph Bradley kept Madison alive and a five-point spurt by Chris Stanley allowed the Trojans to pull out of reach. Bradley led his team in scoring with 22 and Stanley put 15 shots through the hoop.

Collinsville's Marc Fletcher scored 47 points Friday in leading his team to an 88-70 victory over Quincy and popped in 27 more as the Hawks defeated Thornton-North Saturday afternoon 81-60. The 6-foot-4 senior guard is the son of longtime Collinsville Coach Virgil Fletcher.

Collinsville, which had beaten Madison 70-65 last year, again downed the local team but was held from running away with the game when young Fletcher was taken out on fouls. He had scored 27 against the Trojans.

Bradley was Madison's leading pointmaker with 22 points and had six assists, seven offensive rebounds, two defensive rebounds and forced four enemy turnovers.

The Trojans will carry their 2-1 record to St. Louis tomorrow afternoon against Central High in a 4 p.m. game. Madison defeated Central last year 63-55 in regular season play.

Venice to open

The Venice Red Devils will open their cage season tomorrow, hosting the Columbia Eagles at 8:15 p.m.

Richard Essington, the new basketball coach at Venice, says, "We are ready physically and the players are pretty much up to it."

Venice will be led on the courts by 6'7" Ron Henry and Tony Sifton. Complementing the two will be J. B. Harmon, a 6 foot senior forward, junior forward Mike Henry at 6'4", and sophomore guard Reggie Gardner at 5'10".

Columbia, in the rebuilding stage, had two of its starting guards injured in football who are not expected to play tomorrow. The Eagles' power will be with 6'5" center Todd Stump, a junior who last year averaged about 18-points per game.

"Venice's size will be against us," says Eagles' Coach Ron Colyer. "They always use the diamond-press defense against us, so we pretty much know what to expect."

"Our defense is going to have to block the board to stop the Red Devils' scoring."

The jayvee squads will play at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow, followed by the varsity match.

Miss Colleen Gilley is wed to Rodney Ozanich

Red roses and snow white chrysanthemums graced the altar of Hope Lutheran Church for the wedding of Miss Colleen Ann Gilley and Rodney Craig Ozanich.

The Rev. Louis J. Oetting, pastor, heard the couple repeat their wedding vows in a double ring ceremony performed at 6 o'clock on the evening of Oct. 13.

Selections played on the organ included "We've Only Just Begun," "Somewhere My Love," the themes from "Love Story" and "Romeo and Juliet" and the "Wedding March."

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Gilley, 2550 Waterman Ave. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ozanich, reside at 2538 Spaulding Ave.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Gilley chose a "southern belle" style bridal gown of Chantilly lace. Long, tight sleeves were set in the molded bodice designed with a square neckline.

The bouffant skirt, created of Chantilly lace tiers, swept into a full court train of lace. Her shoulder length veil of illusion mist was held in place by a pearl encrusted Juliet cap, centered with a teardrop pearl cluster.

She carried a bouquet of white roses intermingled with layers of green leaves.

Carrying the rings and flower petal basket were two small girls, Jo Ann Hammond, a niece of the groom, and Renee Stark, Miss Sara Ketchum, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor, serving with bridesmaids, Miss Sharon Warncke, also a cousin to the bride, Miss Florence Bonds and Miss Dianne Ideman.

The adult attendants and ringbearer were gownned alike in ruby red velvet frocks.

Their full length dresses were fashioned with high necklines, long sleeves and A-line skirts. Heavy white lace detailed the front bodice and trimmed the neck, waist and cuffs. Red velvet half-hats encircled with shoulder length red veils were worn on their hair.

The honor maid carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with three red roses and the bridesmaids held arrangements of white carnations tinted in red. The small ringbearer carried a heart-shaped pillow and wore a wrist corsage of white carnations sprayed in red.

The little flower girl appeared in a miniature version of the bridal gown, worn with a jeweled headpiece and illusion veil. She held a white basket filled with deep red rose petals.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Wayne Ozanich, as best man and the bride's brothers, Charles, John and Michael Gilley, as his groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Paul and Glenn Gilley, uncles of the bride, and Valmar Stark.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gilley chose a vivid pink gown, full length, made with long sleeves. Ruffling edged the V neckline and cuffs and she wore silver accessories.

Mrs. Ozanich selected a frock in a soft pink shade designed in Empire style with a V neckline and long sleeves. She had matching accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, the newlyweds received guests at Tempel's Smorgasbord on Johnson Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ozanich are now at home in Granite City.

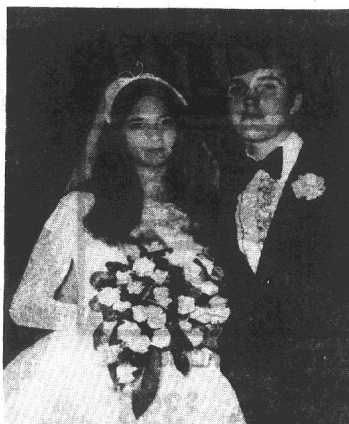

The bride is employed as a store secretary at Reese Drugs in Bellemeor Village Shopping Center. Her husband works for Missouri-Pacific Railroad.

Both were graduated in 1972 from Granite City High School and the groom attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for one year.

Simmons-Smith wedding at Suburban Baptist

Miss Sandra Sue Smith, a daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. John Robert Smith, 3232 Rodger Ave., and Randy Al Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Simmons, 146 E. 22nd St., Alton, exchanged nuptial vows on Nov. 16 at Suburban Baptist Church.

The Rev. Bob Worley officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. before a candelabra arch holding lighted tapers. Bouquets of white gladioli interspersed with bronze and yellow pom poms adorned the altar.

Mrs. Shirley Voorhees presided at the organ for her husband, Raymond Voorhees, as he sang "The Wedding Song" and The Lord's Prayer.

The ceremony was interpreted for guests unable to hear by Miss Ruth Ann Fisher. Mr. Smith escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She chose a white organza gown made in princess style and enhanced with Venise lace and seed pearls. Satin covered buttons accented the big style bodice and the bell sleeves.

A detachable chapel length train, cascading softly from the waist, was defined with lace and etched with pearls. A jeweled clasp of pearls and aurora borealis secured her shoulder length veil of bridal illusion, and she carried a cascade of white carnations, pinks and greenery.

Maid of honor, Miss Jill Sudholt, and bridesmaids, Mrs. George Smith, a sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Gail Purkey, wore identical gowns and held crescent bouquets of bronze and yellow 'mums with natural wheat cardones.

Their dresses were made fashioned with English ivory lace bodices and cocoa brown skirts. A wide ruffled flounce encircled the hem and brown taffeta cummerbunds accented the natural waistlines.

On their hair they wore

Ask the Governor

Q. Is there any chance that the workers laid off in the Highway Department will get rehired?—Kincaid.

A. Of course I don't know the answer to every specific situation because I can't follow every person who is laid off from a state job. But, I can say something about the general situation in the Department of Transportation. I believe that I am the first governor in a long time in this state that came into office and said: "We are not going to add people to the Department of Transportation. We're going to reduce the size of the department."

We have reduced jobs in that department by over 1,000 since I took office. Total state employment for Aug. 31 this year was down by 4,000 jobs compared to Aug. 31 last year. I don't like to fire people, and I don't like to see people lose their jobs with government. But, in my opinion, my first obligation is not to the people who work for government, but to the taxpayers of this state. The bureaucracy of government has been growing because most elected officials find it is easier to add jobs and give out patronage than it is to go the other way and be criticized for laying off people.

Since we plan to reduce the size of the Department of Transportation further, I don't see any prospect for the department to rehire people whose services have been terminated. My advice to those who have been laid off is to apply for positions in other state agencies and branches of government where there might be openings.

Q. Is there a possibility the government can provide paths alongside highways for bicyclists and walkers? With traffic being as heavy as it is today, it is not very safe to ride or walk on our highways. I would like to see the government make Illinois a better place for a walker?—Kincaid.

A. As one who walked 12,000 miles in our state, you could hardly get me to disagree with that statement. Seriously, I would like to see more walkways and bicycle-ways in our state. The problem is one of expense in providing these additional paths.

Although I am an avid walker, I love bicycling too. Unfortunately, I recently had to veto a bill that authorized the construction of bicycle-ways simply because we did not have enough money. Lack of funds is our problem in this matter as well as others. We just don't have enough money to provide everything that all of us would like.

Food inhalation sixth in accidental deaths

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County
Home Economics Adviser

As the holiday season approaches, most families look forward to a time of festivities and happiness. Careless eating and drinking habits may, however, suddenly change celebration to tragedy.

Food inhalation—when food goes into the windpipe instead of being swallowed correctly—is the sixth leading cause of accidental death in the United States.

Most cases occur during holiday seasons when people are apt to be partying more than usual.

At least 200 people die from food inhalation each year. Many others involved in these mishaps are listed as "apparent heart attack" victims. Since the symptoms resemble those of a heart attack, the term "cardiac coronary" has been coined.

When improperly chewed or swallowed food blocks the windpipe and makes breathing impossible, a "cardiac coronary" occurs. Excessive alcohol drinking and poorly fitting denture can both lead to improper chewing.

Children may also have food inhalation accidents. Those who don't have enough teeth to chew well may choke on hard candy, popcorn and peanuts. And food inhalation may occur if children run around while eating.

The American Red Cross, in its "First Aid Textbook," recommends the following when someone chokes on food:

1. Let the victim attempt to cough up the object. At this point, don't probe your fingers in his throat or you may push the object farther down.

If the victim is a child, turn him upside down and smack him on the back between the shoulder blades.

2. Don't distract the victim from his attempt to cough and breathe effectively by showing alarm or by asking him questions.

3. Take him to a physician or the nearest hospital emergency ward, unless the object is expelled, even though symptoms subside.

While emergency care may lessen the number of food inhalation fatalities, the best solution to the problem is prevention.

The three major causes—excessive use of alcohol or other drugs, improperly fitting dentures, and gulping large pieces of food—are all avoidable.

Hunter's guide is available

There are color and black and white photos and illustrations, including a full-page drawing of the four flyways.

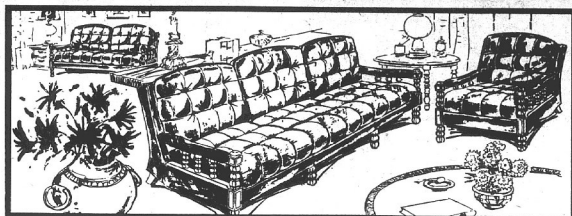

A copy of the book may be obtained by sending your name and address, plus a $2 check or money order, to: Department of Conservation, Division of Wildlife Resources, 606 State Office Building, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

 Well, Thanksgiving is over, now on to Christmas. The first load of live trees and grave blankets arrived last week and appear to be real fine. The Garden Shop is all ready and full of new ornaments, artificial trees and all the other things to make your Christmas merry. The girls there have done and outstanding job getting ready for the season and it would be time well spent to just come in and look, even if you don't need anything. There are about fifteen artificial trees all trimmed and lighted and they are really beautiful. Come on in and take a look.
 We got a good response to the low price on large eggs last week. We were able to make a good buy on them, so we passed it on to you. The egg market took another jump this week, so those of you who took advantage saved about 50¢ a dozen over this week's price.
 We have a new line of baking supplies this season, Sather's. You can find this in the flour aisle on the pegboard, there are some new and unusual items there. Also the bulk of the dried fruit is in and available in the produce department. Yes Sir, Christmas is just around the corner.

Living with energy crisis this winter

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK

Madison County Extension Adviser-Home Economics President Nixon's recent television speech made the energy crisis more real to all Americans. His request to lower furnace thermostats by at least six degrees hit home with many people.

Ronald Raetzman, University of Illinois Extension housing specialist, has a number of other tips to help conserve energy this winter. They'll also help lower electric and gas bills.

He suggests turning off the heat in spare rooms and closing doors to them, although their temperature shouldn't go below 40 degrees.

He also cautions against closing more than one-third of all the registers in a warm-air heating system. The return air grilles shouldn't be closed, either.

Doors to the outdoors should be closed except for use, and this includes doors between the house and an attached garage. Any heated garages should be fully insulated and maintained at the lowest practical temperature.

If you have a basement that's used for other than storage, insulate the walls and windows against heat loss, Raetzman adds. If the basement is used only for storage, the floor above should be insulated and the basement kept at the lowest practical temperature.

If you have crawl-space, the vents should be closed in winter unless the heating unit is located there or there's a moisture problem. If a vent can't be closed, a closure panel can be inserted from the outside.

Hairdressers elect officers

Mrs. Betty Smith was elected president of the Elite Hairdressers Affiliate 33 at a dinner meeting last week at Charlie's Restaurant. She succeeds Mrs. Margaret Scott in the office.

Another highlight of the evening was the presentation of a $125 check to the Rev. Paul Surbey for use in the community's "Mobile Meals" program which provides hot meals to the elderly and shut-in persons. The funds were donated by the affiliate from its annual style show held last month.

Named to serve with Mrs. Smith in 1974 were: Brenda Cant, first vice-president; Bonnie Campbell, second vice-president; Barbara Painter, treasurer; Evelyn Hood, secretary; Carol Law, historian; Joanne Prewitt, parliamentarian; and board

If you live in a mobile home, skirt boards should be installed around the foundation to reduce the outdoor air flow below the home.

You might also consider improvements in insulation in your home. Where winters are moderate and you have gas heat, the ceiling and wall insulation should be 2.5 inches thick. If you have electric heat, the ceiling insulation should be 6 inches thick and the wall insulation 3.5 inches thick.

Where winters are severe, with gas heat, the ceiling insulation should be increased to 6 inches thick. With electric heat, it should be increased to 8 inches. The wall insulation remains 3.5 inches thick.

It's also wise to check the insulation's effectiveness by the R-value. The R-value indicates the ability of a material to keep heat from passing through it. The higher the R-value, the more heat the insulation will keep inside in winter and outside in summer.

All heat ducts in the attic should also be insulated two inches or more, because heat lost from attic ducts is wasted. Once a year, the furnace should be checked and the thermostat cleaned by removing the cover and gently blowing dust out of the mechanism. Check the filter for cleanliness every 30 to 60 days, and regularly vacuum the warm-air and return-air vents to keep dust from accumulating.

Raetzman also suggests installing storm windows and doors, weather-stripping and caulking windows and doors, and checking for air leaks, particularly in the attic.

Mrs. Ward Entertains Visitors From Chicago Mrs. Mildred M. Ward of Granite City entertained Miss Marie Stomking, a cousin, and Miss Marie Hagmann, both of Chicago, as house guests during the Thanksgiving holidays.

A dinner guest Thursday at the Ward Home also was Mrs. Fay Truglio of Wood River. The Chicago visitors departed Sunday.

THANKSGIVING REUNION WITH MRS. PEARL THOMAS Mrs. Pearl Thomas, 2500 Hodges Ave., was the hostess for Thanksgiving dinner and a family reunion Thursday at her home.

Twenty-six guests were seated for dinner, traveling here from Boise, Idaho, and Cleveland, Ohio. Several attended from Granite City and Madison.

Venice school fuel concern

Venice students may have to attend school only four days a week, should an anticipated shortage of fuel develop as expected, members of the Venice Board of Education were informed at a meeting last week. No decision was revealed.

Contingency plans were reviewed after Assistant Supt. Robert N. Vickers reported that a critical situation could have developed last week, when it was believed the tanks might run out of fuel before Monday and a supply was not immediately available.

Pleasant weather with higher temperatures than normal at this time of year enabled the crisis to be averted, he said. Vickers estimated that 1,100 gallons of fuel are needed per week to heat the building on Broadway, which houses both the Venice High School and Grade School.

A recommended 68 degree maximum temperature would be difficult to maintain in the grade school, Vickers said, noting that furnace controls "are shot and temperatures cannot be properly regulated in the classrooms. One room is 90 degrees while another may be 62," he said.

Children may be asked to bring sweaters to school and keep them in lockers, and the custodial staff has been told to shut heat off at noon and turn on furnaces at 5 a.m. instead of 3 a.m. as previously practiced, he said.

Miss Irene Hackett, a high school teacher, said faculty members concerned about the fuel shortage have been discussing various options in heating the school building.

One plan reviewed by the teachers, which she said generally appeared acceptable, would extend present school hours by one hour and 15 minutes daily and reduce class sessions to four days per week. She estimated that the four-day week would save 60 percent in heating fuel by allowing the building to be heated for four half-days, instead of operating furnaces on a five-day basis, plus an added 20 percent saving in gasoline used in vehicles traveling to and from school.

The hours proposed were from 7:30 a.m. until 4 p.m., or from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Total hours would meet the school attendance requirements, Miss Hackett said.

Board members agreed that should the fuel situation worsen as anticipated, such a plan might be feasible and should be further explored.

First National sets dividend

The board of directors of the First Granite City National Bank last week declared a regular quarterly dividend of 40 cents per share plus an extra dividend of 20 cents per share.

Both are payable on Dec. 14, to stock of record Dec. 7. This will make a total of $1.72 per share disbursed to the shareholders in 1973 as compared to $1.39 in 1972, Chairman P. H. Lichtenberger announced. Lichtenberger also advised the board of the resignation of William F. Todd, effective Dec. 1.

Todd, formerly president of the Bank of Egypt of Marion, Ill. joined the bank on Jan. 1 of this year. He and his family are returning to Marion, where he will resume the presidency of the Bank of Egypt.

PEOPLE-POWERED VEHICLE—Bill Learn (right) of Edwardsville attracts attention when he pedals his "people-powered vehicle" (PPV) on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Learn, who has a degree from SIUE in zoology and is now in the SIUE Graduate School, allowed Mr. and Mrs. Alton Perkins (seated in vehicle) of East St. Louis to take a spin around the mall. Both driver and passenger can pedal the vehicle, which has a three-speed transmission, wheel drum brakes and aircraft-styled handlebar steering. Learn says he can pedal 30 miles per hour in the PPV, and "it corners better than a sports car." It is 78 inches long, 48 inches wide and 34 inches high at the top of the windshield.

5 coaching posts filled

Conrad Champion was named head baseball coach of Granite City High School during the Board of Education meeting last week. The board also approved coaching positions for four other men.

Gene Gunderson was named as head basketball coach at Prather Junior High School with Mike Edwards as his first assistant coach. Walt Padgett was approved as assistant baseball coach at Grigsby Junior High School.

The board approved a new working agreement with Local 99 of the Building Service Employees union, representing custodians, cooks and secretaries. The agreement ended a series of talks with various unions, all of which now have settled.

The new agreement calls for a 16-cent per hour increase for all but maintenance and storekeeper positions which will receive a 20-cent per hour increase. The length of the agreement is two years with new talks on wages only at the end of the first year.

The board authorized the Madison County Clerk to abate $80,000 from the 1973-74 bond and interest fund tax levy due to an anticipated surplus in that fund. The abatement will mean a savings of about 4 cents per $100 assessed valuation when taxes are collected next spring.

Students to tour schools

A class of 26 junior college women students who are majoring in physical education will tour Granite City elementary schools Friday to study the local program and its administration.

The visitors are students at Normal. The Granite City Board of Education approved the visit at its meeting last week.

The board gave permission for the Salvation Army to collect canned goods in the schools for Christmas baskets. The idea of any contests involvement with the collection was discouraged so that donations would be voluntary.

The Granite City Steel Co. Management Club was granted permission to use the Namooki School gymnasium and cafeteria Saturday, Dec. 15, for the club's annual children's Christmas party.

The resignation of Meriam Sheriff, a teacher of multiply handicapped students, was accepted with regret. She will be moving to Chicago Jan. 25, 1974, when the resignation is effective.

Suggests legal action in treatment program

The possibility of injunction proceedings to halt further development of a regional secondary sewage treatment program was reported to the Madison City Council last week by Mayor Mike Sasyk.

The plan involves a $32.9 million secondary sewage treatment program to serve nine communities, including Venice and Madison.

Sasyk told the council he has been unable to get any information on the city's obligations and Madison would have no effect representation. He told the council he wants to make sure that everything is on the "up and up," but that the parties involved "insist on being secretive about everything, and all they seem interested in is how much money may be obtained from the government."

Bids for two 1974 police cars were opened, read and referred to the finance committee for study. Bids submitted were Granite City Dodge, $7,719; Mathews Chevrolet, $7,403; Brohead Ford, $6,842; "Bo" Buckman, $7,330.

The council approved a call for bids on a "car-type" pickup truck for the street department. Bids are to be opened at the Dec. 4 council meeting.

A moment of silent prayer was held for Venice Mayor Dr. John E. Lee.

HOME BURGLARIZED

A television, a radio, a cowboy hat and several cases of beer were stolen during a burglary at the home of Chris Geroff, 3100 Yale Ave., reported last week.

CHILD, 4, HURT
Rebecca Ann Trittschuh, 4, was hurt while she was passenger in the car of Frederick Trittschuh, both of 2601 Sheridan Ave. The car was involved in an accident with the auto of William Mathews, 2604 Kirkpatrick Homes, at Nameoki Road and East 27th Street last week.

Dishwasher Do's & Don'ts

to save your money

Do your washing in the mid-evening hours. This makes the most efficient use of the energy we all depend on. Evening hours are the off-peak period.

Do use special settings and cycles to make the best use of hot water in your dishwasher. The convenient mid-cycle turnoff on some models lets you add last-minute items.

Do use the settings for plastics and utensils to make these hard-to-clean items sparkle first time around.

Don't waste money and electricity on small loads. It costs no more to wash a full-load than a half-load.

Don't use a detergent that's not made especially for dishwashers. If your dishes don't seem clean enough, check instructions on the machine and detergent box. Be sure you're using the right amount of detergent and that it's matched to the hardness of your water.

Don't neglect cleaning your dishwasher. Clean the bottom frequently to keep your dishwasher operating efficiently.

Providing energy is our business. Using it wisely is everybody's business.

In loving memory of DOROTHY DOOLITTLE, who passed away November 27, 1958. Remembrance is a golden chain Death tries to break but all in vain.
To have, to love, and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
